

My work consists of imaginary language, objects, diagrams, and symbols. It forms a pictorial language of symbol and writing whose underlying system is not known. Simultaneously ancient and futuristic, the work creates an alternative culture which plays with the mystery (and absurdity) of life, and what lies underneath.

Image: Work in progress at The MacDowell Colony, Peterborough, NH, May 2014. <http://www.macdowellcolony.org/>

Photo credit: Joanna Eldridge Morrissey